

A self-review project consists of selected businesses or organizations reviewing their own books and records under the guidance of written instructions concerning issues of a limited scope and nature. The self-review projects are designed to:

- Help you become familiar with the specific tax laws as they relate to your business.
- Ensure that everyone is remitting their fair share of taxes.
- Reduce business interruptions because an auditor does not physically come to your place of business unless requested by you.
- Assist you in future compliance to avoid penalty and interest.
- Aid in calculating the correct tax amount due.

If you need additional information about self-reviews, contact the Auditing Division at: comp@utah.gov

Please send your completed self-review to:

Utah State Tax Commission
MFM – Amy Hill
210 North 1950 West
Salt Lake City, UT 84134-2200

Current Self-Review Projects

- Aircraft
- ATVs
- Corporate Tax
- Physicians
- U.S. Customs

Past Self-Review Projects

- Grocery Food Credit
- Photography
- Vacation Rental Properties